PLAZA HOUSING IS NOW UP TO HOUSE

Whether the work on the Union Station plaza housing project is to be stopped immediately and the construction of housing projects generally which are not yet 75 per cent completed is to be halted, is up to the House.

The Senate sent to the House today the resolution urged by Senator Reed calculated to bring the housing work to a quick stop. After long debate the Senate adopted the resolution.

Senator Robinson Objects.
It was put through in spite of arguments against it by Senator Robinson of Arkansas, who believed the work on the plaza project should be finished and the dormitories opened to Government workers. Senator Robinson said he was much impressed with a report compiled by Alice H. Grady, assistant director of the Bureau of War Risk Insurance. That report showed hundreds of girls were living in unsanitary and uncomfortable surroundings for which extortionate sums are charged by rent profiteers. The report says the War Risk Bureau probably will retain 8,000 employees. The Grady report showed that over 6,000 applications had been filed for rooms in the dormitories.

Scores Housing Corporation.
Senator Norris tried to have the resolution amended so as to eliminate all reference to projects in Washington but failed. The Norris motion would have allowed the completion of the Union Station plaza project.

In the course of the discussion, the housing corporation came in for sharp scoring by Senator Reed, and by Senator Lenroot. Senator Lenroot told what the testimony showed as to the profits of the George A. Fuller Company of New York, which has a contract for the plaza project. One item mentioned by Senator Lenroot was rental of $1 a day charged the Government by the Fuller Company for dirt scrapers which the Senator said were worth only $12 apiece.

DAUGHTER OF BELGIAN JUSTICE TO LECTURE

Miss Suzanne Silvercruys, daughter of a justice of the supreme court of Belgium, will lecture before the National Geographic Society on "Belgium's Cross" in the auditorium of the New Masonic Temple this afternoon at 4:45 and tonight at 8:15.

After the ravaging of her native land by the foe, Miss Silvercruys accompanied her father on a tour of inspection to the desolated cities of Louvain, Dinant and Namur, and in her address this afternoon and this evening she will tell, from first hand knowledge, what her people have suffered at the hands of the people who disregarded the "scrap of paper."

Miss Silvercruys appears in the brilliant native Belgian costume when on the lecture platform. She reached Washington Tuesday, after speaking tour-through Canada, under the patronage of the governor general, the Duke of Devonshire.

K. C. B.'s TOWN GOSSIP

THEY WERE standing outside.
OF ONE of the ways.
OF A big department store.
AND SHE was very small.
AND ABOUT five.
AND HE was very small.
AND ABOUT seven.
AND HER left hand.
WAS IN his right.
AND WHEN the door would swing.
SO THEY could see inside.
THEY'D HAVE a terrible time.
TRYING to dodge the crowd.
AND LOOK past it.
INTO THE great big store.
AND I watched for them.
WHILE I waited for a car.
AND WONDERED.
AND THEN remembered.
THAT I'D read an ad.
ABOUT A Toyland.
IN THE very same store.
AND BEING very small.
AND VERY young.
THE LITTLE girl.
AND THE little boy.
DIDN'T KNOW.
THAT THERE were many doors.
AND MANY floors.
AND THAT where they were.
WAS JUST a shoe department.
AND THOUGH they might see.
PAST THE swinging doors.
THEY COULD see no toys.
AND JUST at the moment.
I HAD made up my mind.
TO GO and enlighten them.
THERE CAME a young man.
AND BEFORE I reached them.
HE HAD stopped.
AND WAS talking to them.
AND AT first they were frightened.
OR MAYBE just bashful.
BUT ANYWAY.
IN A moment or two.
THE THREE of them.
WERE ALL holding hands.
AND HAD joined the crowd.
THROUGH THE swinging doors.
AND NOT to be robbed.
OF WHAT it might bring.
I WENT trailing along.
TO THE elevator.
AND THREE floors up.
AND THE three got out.
AND SO did I.
AND FOR an hour.
THEIR NEW found friend.
LED THE two of them.
ALL OVER the place.
